

An embossed landscape design on a textured, aged paper background. The design features a large, detailed evergreen tree on the left side, with its trunk and branches clearly defined. To the right of the tree, there are rolling hills or mountains, also embossed with fine lines to create a sense of depth and texture. The overall style is classic and elegant, typical of mid-20th-century bookbinding.

Dedication

Because he has so unselfishly devoted his time and his service in the interest of young people and the upbuilding of Bethel School, we gratefully dedicate this issue of The 1956 Pissgahteer to our principal, C. C. Poindexter.

Special Recognition

In Appreciation

For his composition of the Bethel School Alma Mater, for his ever increasing interest in the Band and for promoting student appreciation of good music, we are deeply indebted to Mr. Robert Matthews.

Pigeon Valley Fair - 1955

The Fourth Annual Pigeon Valley Fair was sponsored by the Bethel Chapter of the Future Farmers of America on September 27-October 1. Fair directors M. C. Nix and B. C. Nave, and the 83 student members were in charge of a program of varied entertainments and exhibits.

Directors, B. C. Nave, M. C. Nix and F. F. A. members, Grover Calhoun and Carroll Chambers, look at an exhibit in the new F. F. A. barn.

Antique Exhibit organized by Mrs. Bert Cagle and Mrs. Ralph Kelly.

Exhibit of Bethel Monogram Club 1954-55 Basketball Trophies

Horse Show

The Horse Show held in Saturday afternoon was one of the highlights of the Fair. Hoyt Norris, Bethel Senior, foreground, is riding "Danny Boy" owned by J. R. Gibson.

J. H. A.

Members of Bethel Future Horsemen of America Club prepared and sold hot dogs at the Fair.

Bethel Cheerleaders

Bethel Cheerleaders decorate goal posts for the Bethel-Hendersonville Foot Ball game held on Friday afternoon, Sept. 31.

Bethel Band

At half-time during the Bethel-Hendersonville Football Game, the Bethel Band gave a special performance. In the foreground, Janet Foster, and Gay Parker.

Flower Exhibit

Mrs. Don Stevenson and Mrs. Charlie Terrell were in charge of the flower exhibit at the Fair.

Senior Square Dance

A popular feature of the Fair was the Talent Show held Thursday, Friday, Saturday nights. The Bethel Square Dance Team gave a popular performance each night.

We are happy to join in congratulating the students of Bethel High School on their educational growth.
Our own growth is dependent upon the continued advancement of educational facilities in our community, county, and state. To aid in the promotion of this advancement we pledge service with integrity in the field of audio-visual and institutional equipment and materials.
